

S.T.E.T WOMEN'S COLLEGE MANNARGUDI
PG AND RESEARCH DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

TWO MARK QUESTIONS

SUBJECT: WOMEN EMPOWERMENT

SUBJECTCODE: 16ANMESO2

CLASS: II.B.COM

STAFF NAME: J.ANNAMMAL

1. What is the meaning of rural women?

Rural Women Councils (RWCs) are local women's groups in rural areas that primarily deal with environmental issues, natural resources and sustainable agricultural management, in order to ensure improved community and regional development.

2. What is the role of women in society?

Women are the primary caretakers of children and elders in every country of the world. International studies demonstrate that when the economy and political organization of a society change, women take the lead in helping the family adjust to new realities and challenges.

3. What is urban and rural?

An urban area is the region surrounding a city. ... Rural areas are the opposite of urban areas. Rural areas, often called "the country," have low population density and large amounts of undeveloped land. Usually, the difference between a rural area and an urban area is clear.

4. What are the differences between rural and urban areas?

Rural areas are the opposite of urban areas. Rural areas, often called "the country," have low population density and large amounts of undeveloped land.

5. What is social scenario?

"Social Scenarios" is a packet of skill building activity cards designed to help students develop strategies for responding to others in an appropriate manner. Students with social skill deficits tend to have more negative interactions with others. They often have difficulty interpreting social cues.

6. What is a scenario example?

A usage scenario, or scenario for short, describes a real-world example of how one or more people or organizations interact with a system. They describe the steps, events, and/or actions which occur during the interaction. ... Usage scenarios are applied in several development processes, often in different ways.

7. How does violence affect society?

Exposure to violent events can be traumatic and can negatively impact multiple factors such as development, academic functioning, coping skills and relationships. Kids are not only being exposed to violence within their communities at a much higher rate, but also through technology.

8. What is social scenario?

"Social Scenario" is a packet of skill building activity cards designed to help students develop strategies for responding to others in an appropriate manner. Students with social skill deficits tend to have more negative interactions with others. They often have difficulty interpreting social cues.

9. Economic scenario?

We define this as the "most likely outcome" based on current conditions and our view of where the economy is headed. We then develop the basic outlines of our alternative scenarios by running multiple simulations to develop a probability distribution of economic outcomes.

10. What is an economic scenario generator?

An Economic Scenario Generator (ESG) refers to a mathematical model (and its computer implementation) that simulates possible future paths of economic and financial market variables.

11. What is politics and its importance?

Politics is the set of activities that are associated with making decisions in groups, or other forms of power relations between individuals, such as the distribution of resources. The academic study of politics is referred to as political science.

12. What is the meaning of reservation system?

Reservation System means the Technology systems owned, operated or licensed by Starwood or its Affiliates, from time to time, for offering, booking, modifying or communicating reservations for guest rooms and other facilities and services.

13. Reservation on India?

Reservation in India is a system of affirmative action that provides representation for historically and currently disadvantaged groups in Indian society in education, employment and politics.

14. Role of political parties in India?

As with any other democracy, political parties represent different sections among the Indian society and regions, and their core values play a major role in the politics of India. ... Unless a party or a coalition has a majority in the lower house, a government cannot be formed by that party or the coalition.

15. What is the role of political party?

A political party is an organized group of people who have the same ideology, or who otherwise have the same political positions, and who field candidates for elections, in an attempt to get them elected and thereby implement the party's agenda.

16. What are the three political parties?

Political parties in the United States

- Democratic Party.
- Republican Party.
- Minor American parties.

17. Why do we have two political parties?

Some historians have suggested that two-party systems promote centrism and encourage political parties to find common positions which appeal to wide swaths of the electorate. It can lead to political stability which leads, in turn, to economic growth.

18. Role of women in information technology?

The world is becoming a much better place with advance in technology and the role of women can never be over emphasize in the world growth today, women played important roles in Information technology sector, but the ratio of men compared to that of women n in this sector is probably 80-20%.

19. Role of media in women empowerment?

In a large consumer-driven society, electronic media (such as television) and print media (such as newspapers) are important for distributing advertisement media. In addition to this "advertising" role, media is nowadays a tool to share knowledge all around the world.

20. What is the role of media research?

Mass media research is the study of information related to any form of mass communication. For health and well-being reasons, mass media research is important, as it helps scientists find out how mass media impacts people.

21. What is the role of media in communication?

Media messages convey important influences 163 Mass media and other forms of communication technology have an enormous influence in helping to shape public opinion and underlying sentiment. Negative messages can divide communities and can help perpetuate the stereotypes that nurture violence.

22. What is the position of Indian women's political representation?

India ranks 20th from the bottom in terms of representation of women in Parliament. Women have held the posts of president and prime minister in India, as well as chief ministers of various states. Indian voters have elected women to numerous state legislative assemblies and national parliament for many decades.

23. What are the 5 types of empowerment?

Terms in this set (6)

- Empowerment. Ability to do something about your needs, wants, opinions, beliefs, and feelings.
- Economic Empowerment. How people work to create wealth.
- Political Empowerment. All the things we do to organize ourselves and to make decisions.
- Cultural Empowerment
- Societal Empowerment
- National Empowerment

24. What is the importance of women's empowerment in India?

- Women empowerment through education
- Women empowerment is the pivotal part in any society, state or country. It is a woman who plays a dominant role in the basic life of a child. Women are an important section of our society. Education as means of empowerment of women can bring about a positive attitudinal change.

25. What does woman's mean?

Woman, female, lady are nouns referring to adult human beings who are biologically female; that is, capable of bearing offspring. Woman is the general term. ... Lady meaning “refined, polite woman” is a term of approval or praise: a real lady in all things; to behave like a lady.

26. What is meant by women's empowerment?

Women's economic empowerment refers to the ability for women to enjoy their right to control and benefit from the resources, assets, income and their own time, as well as the ability to manage risk and improve their economic status and well being.

27. What is the aim of empowerment?

Empowerment is a set of measures designed to increase the degree of autonomy and self-determination in people and in communities in order to enable them to represent their interests in a responsible and self-determined way, acting on their own authority.

28. What is the main role of a woman in our society?

Women play a very vital role in human progress and have a significant place in the society. The main responsibility of a woman is to preserve the human race. As a mother, her position is unique. She brings up the children with extreme care.

29. What is the meaning of urban area?

An urban area is the region surrounding a city. Most inhabitants of urban areas have nonagricultural jobs. Urban areas are very developed, meaning there is a density of human structures such as houses, commercial buildings, roads, bridges, and railways. "Urban area" can refer to towns, cities, and suburbs.

30. What is mean of urban?

Urban means belonging to, or relating to, a town or city, Most of the population is an urban population. Most urban areas are close to a park.

31 What are examples of urban?

The definition of urban is relating to a city or of a city with a population of at least 50,000 people. An example of urban is the nature of Manhattan.

32. Why is women's empowerment important?

Empowerment of women is a necessity for the very development of a society, since it enhances both the quality and the quantity of human resources available for development. Empowerment is one of the main procedural concerns when addressing human rights and development.

The doctor-to-population ratio in India is 1:2148. The infant mortality rate is 64 per 1,000 live births. Since independence, considerable progress has been achieved in the promotion of health in India.

33. How does violence affect society?

Exposure to violent events can be traumatic and can negatively impact multiple factors such as development, academic functioning, coping skills and relationships. Kids are not only being exposed to violence within their communities at a much higher rate, but also through technology.

34. What are the different types of violence?

The World Health Organization divides violence into three broad categories: self-directed violence. Interpersonal violence. Collective violence.

These three broad categories are each divided further to reflect more specific types of violence:

- physical
- sexual
- psychological
- emotional

35. What are 5 types of violence?

Types of Violence

Child Maltreatment (e.g., child abuse and neglect)

Intimate Partner Violence (e.g., violence by a current or former spouse, boy/girlfriend)

Sexual Violence (e.g., rape, sexual assault, sexual harassment)

Suicide (e.g., fatal and nonfatal suicide behavior)

Youth Violence (e.g., bullying, gang violence, peer violence)

36. What are the three types of education?

There are three main types of education, namely, Formal, Informal and Non-formal.

37. What are the benefits of education?

Benefits of Education are societal and Personal

- Poverty Reduction.
- Connecting Across Borders.
- Sense of Accomplishment.
- More Productivity.
- Better Communication.
- Critical Thinking Skills.
- Identification of Skills.
- Greater Sense of Discipline.

38. What are the characteristics of education?

Education is a process of continuous reconstruction of experience. Education exhibits a wide characteristic among which the most important are: 1. Education is a social process: Education occurs only in social environment and without it no one can acquire experiences.

39. Position of women in India?

The situation of women in India, In Indian society, women are traditionally discriminated against and excluded from political and family related decisions. Despite the large amount of work women must do on a daily basis to support their families, their opinions are rarely acknowledged and their rights are limited.

40 What are the four elements of empowerment?

Four Essential Components of Empowerment

- Authority
Employees need the latitude to take the initiative to solve problems. ...
- Resources
A second necessary component of empowerment is resources; that is, employees must be given the means to carry out the authority they have been given. ...
- Information
- Accountability

41. What is concept of empowerment?

Empowerment is a set of measures designed to increase the degree of autonomy and self-determination in people and in communities in order to enable them to represent their interests in a responsible and self-determined way, acting on their own authority.

42. What are the principles of empowerment?

The balance begins to emerge as managers internalize eight critical principles of empowerment, namely: protect the dignity of all employees; manage perceptions, not just the “facts”; use organizational authority to release rather than inhibit human potential; use consensus decision making; clarify vision, mission, ...

43. Five Types of Female Empowerment?

- Social
Social empowerment might be one of the most prominent forms of empowerment shown in the mainstream media. ...
- Educational
Education is a crucial part of growing and developing, but there are still places in the world that deny education to girls. ...
- Economic
- Political
- Psychological

44. What is the meaning of economic empowerment?

Economic empowerment is the ability to make and act on decisions that involve the control over and allocation of financial resources (Golla et al., 2011). ... Empowerment involves: Agency, which is an individual's ability to make and act on her (or his) own choices.

45. Women in development?

A woman in development is an approach of development projects that emerged in the 1960s, calling for treatment of women's issues in development projects. It is the integration of women into the global economies by improving their status and assisting in total development.